

Created By:
Lalla Chadwick
QIC

Discharge Resources At A Glance

Is the patient appropriate to go home?

Is Patient unable to go home, but needs assistance?

Does the patient require 24 hour skilled care?

Home Health Skilled Medicaid/Medicare

Personal Assistance

Title III (Home Maker Program)

HCBS (Waiver) Medicaid

Assisted Living

Retirement Home A Beds Only

Home Services Medicaid requires Prior Authorization

Nursing Home

Medicaid Home Bound Not applicable PT, OT, ST Nursing Home Health Aide

Medicaid Non-skilled care State Plan PAS State Plan SDPAS

Housekeeping

Supervision

Medicaid Waiver Room and Board paid

Private Pay

Medicaid Most Appropriate Placement Home Health PT, OT, ST Home Health Aide

Medicare 100 Days per benefit period 3 days prior qualified hospital stay

Medicaid EPSDT Birth to 20 years Skilled Nursing Only

Service Necessary upon Discharge Contact Provider Agency for High Risk Intake

Monthly Nursing Visits

Environmental Modification

Client aware of incontinence

Private Insurance

Medicaid EPSDT/ Birth to 20 Skilled Nursing Only

Medicaid Level 1 Nursing Home level of care Spousal Impoverishment Applies Lien & Estate Recovery

Medicare Home Bound Skilled Need

Case Management

Errands

Home Making

Doesn't need daily skilled nursing care

May ask for assistance with meals, ADL's and Medication Administration

Medicare Home Health Home Bound Skilled Need

Needs to be off Medicare coverage at least 60 days; readmit to hospital for three days before another 100 days can be received

Best Practices High Risk Assessment Front Loading Emergency Care Plan Medication Management Telehealth

Low Income 60 years of age or older

Case Management

Durable Medical Equipment

Private Duty Nursing

A & B Beds Some C Beds Licensing Not Paid for Under Medicare

Best Practices High Risk Assessment Front Loading Emergency Care Plan Medication Management Telehealth

Waiting List Service

NO

YES